JANICE GRACE "GEISHA GIRL"

REMIXES BY TRACY YOUNG - ALLEN JEFFREY - RICHARD GREY

After reading the book 'Memoirs of a Geisha' I knew I had a song. I collected as much info on Geisha as possible. I wanted to tell their story. They are not hookers; they are artisans. They have honed their skills of dance, music, flattery and conversation to perfection. This is what I want to portray in this song: artisans honing their skills.

While driving I heard a remix on Sirius radio by Tracy Young. I was so blown away I had to pull over and just LISTEN. This was the person who had to do my remix. Tracy was gracious and smiled down upon me. She created a masterpiece of Progressive House ecstasy with "Geisha Girl".

Additional infectious remixes included on this release:

A dark and smoky Latin Tribal remix by NYC's Allen Jeffrey

A hypnotic House/Trance remix by Ibiza's Richard Grey.

I hope everyone enjoys "Geisha Girl" as much as I did writing it and working with these incredible remixers.

I'll see you at the Winter Music Conference!

Wishing you Health, Bliss and Prosperity,
